Get The Code

🕒 1 - 1,5 hour 👥 10 - 200

The dream of the floating skateboard, the hoverboard becomes a reality! The technology company Swoopeo is just about to bring the new technology onto the market, when something unexpected happens.

Can you steer yourself and your colleagues away from this disaster? Or will one of the other teams be better?

Puzzles, a quiz and tasks can only be solved together – time is the opponent.

Outside? Inside? It doesn't matter! The team escape game "Get the CODE" can be adapted to the wishes and needs of your team.

Get The Code is a mobile Team Escape Game with an exciting story in a corporate context.

Mission objective ? To decipher the code from the suitcase as quickly as possible and activate the GPS-Tracker so that Swoopeo's secret documents are delivered back to their headquarters in time.

Using a tablet, you fill in the solutions and scores are kept. Also, the remaining time is always indicated, driving the tension to the top!
